FOOD & WINE TRAILS OPTIONAL SHORE TOUR

During the course of your upcoming cruise, you will have the opportunity to join your Woodward Canyon fellow cruisers on an exclusive Food & Wine Trails optional shore excursion.

A region's food and wine gives much insight into its land and culture. This is no truer than in France, home to many of the world's finest chefs and wineries. Food & Wine Trails has unique culinary contacts around the world that give us the inside connections we need to offer on-shore experiences specifically designed for the food and wine lover.

We invite you to discover Bordeaux, one of France's most prominent wine regions on an exclusive shore tour from the port of Libourne. Spend the day on the Right Bank visiting two outstanding wine estates and enjoy a delicious wine-paired lunch at one of our favorite chateau restaurants. The tour also includes a stop at the charming, must-see medieval village of St. Emilion.

This shore tour is available exclusively to the guests of Woodward Canyon. Enclosed you will find the full tour description, tour registration form, and comments from past cruisers praising Food & Wine Trails tours as "the highlight" of their trip.

We highly recommend booking early as tours are limited in capacity and tend to sell out quickly!

THE RISING REDS OF BORDEAUX – RIGHT BANK

PORT: LIBOURNE, FRANCE | THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24, 2019 | 9:30 AM – 6:00 PM*

For generations, Bordeaux has been known as the most famous winemaking region in the world. Every year, wine lovers from all over the world come to Bordeaux for one simple reason: to visit the 300,000 acres of vineyards that lie outside town and stretch for miles in every direction. And no matter which direction you go, there's an appellation—from the classic reds of the Médoc to the underappreciated whites of Graves and Entre-Deux-Mers; from the unparalleled dessert wines of Sauternes, to the rising reds of the Right Bank's Pomerol and Saint-Émilion.

ST EMILION VINEYARDS

Winemakers from all over the world have credited the wines of Bordeaux for influencing their personal winemaking style. Food & Wine Trails has designed a special experience at three châteaux that produce excellent wines covering both the Pomerol appellation and the Saint-Émilion appellation, considered by some to be the “Capital of Merlot” and possibly the oldest, active wine producing appellation in the region with history dating back to the ancient Romans.

Your day begins amid a beautiful landscape with a visit to Château Beau-Séjour Bécot, located in the western plateau of Saint-Émilion. Classified as a Premier Grand Cru Classé, they currently have vintages being lauded by Robert Parker and Wine Spectator with 90+ ratings. You will be welcomed for a guided tour followed by a tasting of three of their vintages.

After your tasting you will transfer to the picturesque Château de Candale. This charming chateau was built by lady Marguerite de Suffolk Kandale, direct descendant of the King of England Edward III. Chef Cyrille Gallard has designed a three-course menu paired with the estate's wines. Weather permitting, you will enjoy lunch on their beautiful terrace in the middle of the vineyards served with their estate wines.

CHÂTEAU DE CANDALE

CHÂTEAU BEAUREGARD

A short drive brings you to another top winery in the Pomerol appellation - Château Beauregard. Although unclassified, the estate has a reputation as one of the great growths of the region. During your visit, you will have the opportunity to tour the 18th century château and the spacious gardens covered in century old trees. Following your estate tour, you will enjoy a tasting of four of their vintages.

Later this afternoon, your guide will lead you into the medieval village of Saint Emilion for a private tour of the underground hermitage and monolithic church before heading back to the ship.
